RESCUE RUNNING FOR THE OCCIDENTAL VEIN

RICH STRINGERS ARE NOW BEING CUT IN THE MAGGIE MAY CLAIM

The Rescue-Eula is now running a north crosscut in the Eula claim which will crosscut the entire claim on the 950 level. The management has expectations of cutting the Occidental claim of the Belmont on this level. This was in its time one of the most prominent veins in the Belmont. The face of the crosscut is now in very favorable formation and is liable to break into the vein at any time. The company is also prospecting the Maggie May claim. It has cut several stringers of rich ore.

VOTING CONTEST IS GROWING IN INTEREST

NEARLY TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND BALLOTS ALREADY CAST FOR THE LEADERS

Voting in the contest for queen of the movies in Nevada, as well as the substantial prize of $1,000 worth of stock in the Nevada Film company of Tonopah Inc., grows livelier each day, there now have been nearly 200,000 votes cast. Miss Davis still maintains a very substantial lead, but Miss Malone is making gains daily, indicating that there will be a spirited and exciting finish.

Following was the standing of the contestants this morning:

Miss Isabel Davis, 109,250.
Miss Eleanor Malone, 71,500.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS DANCE BIG SUCCESS

TENTH ANNUAL BALL ATTENDED BY HUNDREDS AND ALL PLEASED

The tenth annual ball, which was given last evening in the Airdome by Mizpah lodge, No. 25, Knights of Pythias, was a huge success in every way. There were one hundred couples or more on the floor at all times. A number of Goldfield people were present, the members of the football team from that town being guests. Dancing continued until one o'clock and the throng was even then reluctant to depart.

C. D. Zeigler was chairman of the floor committee. Stewart McDonald was floor director. The other members of the committee were George Schmidt, Stanley Knight, Horton Anderson, B. M. Bateman, S. S. Swartz, Sam Findley and M. Woolridge. The uniform rank of the Knights of Pythias will give its annual dance in the Airdome on New Year's eve.

DEMURRER OVERRULED

In the case of A. E. Venton vs. R. L. Sloan et al, Judge Averill this morning made a ruling on demurrer and motion to strike. He overruled the demurrer and allowed the motion to strike only to the extent of a portion of a paragraph. This was a case involving the sale of mortgaged property without foreclosure.

AMUSING EPISODE AT A JURY TRIAL

STENOGRAPHER WORKS WITH BOTH HANDS AND CHIN TRYING TO TAKE TESTIMONY

During the trial of the case of Nelson and Cooke vs. Smith and Sparguer at Hawthorne this week, to test the validity of a location, it happened that Nelson was on the stand in rebuttal and was being examined by Judge Forman. Both attorney and witness grew somewhat heated and both were talking at top speed at once. To add to the disconcertment of the official court reporter, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff objected in fluent manner, the three talking in concert, and ragtime concert at that.

Lew Rogers, the stenographer, dropped his pencil, threw up his hands and exclaimed: "I quit. Any reporter that could take this case should be covered with Carnegie hero medals." Judge Walsh made an excellent referee. He declared a recess and had the windows of the courtroom opened so that all parties could cool down, then the case was resumed in stilled dignity.

LADS FROM GOLDFIELD WIN AT FOOTBALL

SCORE IN HIGH SCHOOL GAME WAS TWELVE TO SEVEN YESTERDAY

Before the largest and most enthusiastic crowd yet seen at the ball ground, the local high school football team was vanquished by the lads from Goldfield. The game was hoity contested from the start, and although marred by some show of scrapping not countenanced by the rules, was an excellent one from the spectators' standpoint.

Goldfield scored two touchdowns, and kicked neither goal. Tonopah scored one, and Zeur placed the ball squarely between the posts for the added point. Score 12 to 7. Witt was responsible for each of Goldfield's scores and Pollard is to be credited for Tonopah's touchdown.

Capt. Joe Murphy at fullback, and Milton Pollard at half back, played the star game for Tonopah. Zeur entered the game very weak from an attack of the gripe and was taken from the game during the third period. He has proved the most consistent gainer for the local team during the season, and although he could not show his usual brilliancy in this game, he was accorded much praise for his pluck and grit.

James O'Connell and Louis Bohor at the end positions and quarter back Gilbert were conspicuous in each play.

Capt. James of Goldfield played a smashing game, his weight proving a great asset. The playing of Witt was also spectacular.

M. J. Conover and Rev. Thompson alternated as referees. Ray Cross was field judge and head linesman. W. H. Weslar and Austin James were timekeepers and Wm. Cuddy acted as Tonopah's linesman.

The following earned the privilege of wearing the black "T" by playing in this game: Joe Murphy, James O'Connell, John Cuddy, Wm. Parker, Joe Fuetsch, Henry Lamb, Louis Bohor, Dan McNeil, Albert Gilbert, Milton Pollard, Lawrence Zeel and Howard Coulter. It is possible also that one or two others may be granted the privilege of wearing the emblem by a special vote of the student body.

THIRTY-SIX TO BE DECKED WITH ANTLERS

BIG INITIATION TO TAKE PLACE AT THE END OF THE WEEK

Thirty-six novitiates await in fear and trembling for what will be coming to them from Tonopah lodge, No. 1062, B. P. O. Elks after the stroke of 12 Saturday night. Earlier in the evening there will be a session of the lodge and then there will be one later and the last estate will be fully as bad or worse than the first.

Although imagining that they fully realize what will be their portion, it is said that the untried 36 have not even a faint conception. At all events none of them has yet shown any indication of the white feather. The candidates will be from Ruth, Sunnyside, Millers, Ely, Manhattan, Round Mountain and Tonopah. Following is the list of heroes: C. W. Hicks, Roy Doughman, Chas. N. Roberts, H. C. Fraser, Jos. O. Isham, C. H. Smith, Jas. L. Kane, I. Brassington, Roy Williams, A. N. TONOPAH EDITOR ARRESTED FOR LIBEL

W. W. Booth, editor and manager of the Tonopah Daily Bonanza, was arrested twice Thursday on the charges of criminal libel. The first was brought about by Commissioners Marsh and Davis and District Attorney Sanders, their lawyer. The second was instituted by District Attorney Sanders, says the Silver State.

It is expected that another arrest will follow when Commissioner Ferguson files his complaint against Mr. Booth.

Booth was released on $3000 bail. The people of Tonopah rallied strongly to his support and promised bail to the amount of $200,000, if it was needed.

During the Bonanza's fight against extravagance in the use of county funds and for good government, the paper has had the loyal support of practically all the people of Tonopah.

JURY FINDS WOODS GUILTY—LIFE SENTENCE

The jury in the Woods murder case at Elko returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed his sentence at life imprisonment. Woods was accused of shooting Ollie Bates at Goose Creek last August and the circumstantial evidence was so strong that there remained no doubt in the minds of the jury as to his guilt.

QUICK RESULTS

Bill Evans, chief of police, rang up the Bonanza office this morning and stated that a pearl necklace had been found at the football game yesterday and had been turned over to him awaiting the owner. The ad was immediately typed, but the metal was not yet cold when the chief phoned in that the owner had applied to him, proving property and had the valuable trinket restored to her. Some telepathy evidently at work.

BUTLER THEATRE

The feature to-night at the Butler will be William Farnum, the $100,000 screen star, in William Fox's production of "The Wonderful Adventure," by Captain Wilbur Lawton. "The Wonderful Adventure" is in part biographical, said Captain Lawton recently, while discussing his latest work. Some of the events embodied in it actually happened to a man who is still living and whose name is honored as one of the most famous of modern novelists. The idea that some of the more striking events of his life would make an impressive photo-play if transposed from my play and novel, occurred to me while cruising on my yacht "Omoo" in the West Indies. I at once wrote the scenario on board and put back for New York, where Mr. Fox became interested in my work and accepted it for the use of Mr. Farnum. It is a photo-drama of modern life and dual personalities, wonderfully compelling, and the name of William Farnum alone, topping the bill, is sufficient assurance to all theatergoers, of seeing a picture worth while. The preliminary reel will be Pathe Weekly of current events and scenes. Tomorrow "The Chalice of Courage," a Blue Ribbon Feature, and Charlie Chaplin.

TO THE PUBLIC

Monday, November 29th, has been named as Old Clothes Day by the Christmas Tree Executive Committee, and upon this day we are going to ask that every man or woman in Tonopah, who desires to assist in this charitable work, gather all clothes, underwear, etc., for both young and old alike, into a bundle, and either bring them, or telephone the Chief of Police office, where the committee on distribution will make their headquarters, and they will see to it that each and every article will reach a needy family.

Do not hesitate as the good work is now going on, and your executive committee is going to see that this Christmas will be one of the happiest for both young and old, that Tonopah has ever had.

It is said that over 10,000,000 women in this country shop daily, 90 per cent of whom are influenced through advertising to buy a certain article or go to a certain store; hence when a small dealer tells you that advertising doesn't pay, you will find, nine times out of ten, that not only his advertising but his store methods are faulty. He is, very likely, a spasmodic advertiser. He is operating without any particular plan or policy. In short, he is a hot and cold proposition, pretty much like the old rooster in the snow, standing first on one foot, then on the other, trying to avoid getting cold feet, where if he used both feet at the same time, he would get to some place where there wasn't any snow. The advertiser who uses the Daily Bonanza
